Final Winter Volunteer Open House at Pamplin Historical Park

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 19, 2012

Petersburg, VA - Volunteer opportunities available at Pamplin Historical Park will be addressed at a public open house on Thursday, February 9 from 3:00 - 4:00 p.m at The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier, located at 6125 Boydton Plank Road, in Petersburg, Virginia. This is the final open house of the winter in preparation for the busy spring field trip season.

Volunteers may assist in the following areas of operation: Education, interpretation, visitor services, retail services, administration, maintenance, gardening, marketing, IT support, and library maintenance. Volunteers from all walks of life are welcome to attend, from mature teenagers to seniors. The Park's goal is to offer volunteers an opportunity to help preserve history and promote education.

For more information contact Victoria Webb, volunteer coordinator, at 804-861-2408 or email vwebb@pamplinpark.org.
