October 27, 2010

Petersburg, VA - Volunteer opportunities available at Pamplin Historical Park will be addressed at a public open house on Thursday, November 4th at 2:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. Both events will be held at The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier, located at 6125 Boydton Plank Road, in Petersburg, Virginia.

Volunteers may assist in the following areas of operation: Education, interpretation, visitor services, retail services, administration, maintenance, gardening, marketing, IT support, and library maintenance. Volunteers from all walks of life are welcome to attend, from mature teenagers to seniors.

The Park's goal is to offer volunteers an opportunity to help preserve history and promote education. "Volunteering at Pamplin Historical Park gives me a great sense of satisfaction," says George Pate, a volunteer who has given over 500 hours of service since February 2009. "Helping people, especially children, learn more about their heritage is very important. The staff and volunteers work together very well to accomplish the Park's mission to do this task."
