International Television Show marches into Pamplin Historical Park

Televised weekly across the country on the PBS network, and globally in over 40 countries, Globe Trekker is the ultimate adventure travel guide to exploring the world. Their dazzling journey of the greatest experiences on earth brought them today to Pamplin Historical Park & The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier in Petersburg, VA. The Park will be featured in an upcoming show on the Southeastern United States.

Host Megan McCormick "Lived the Life of a Civil War Soldier" as she participated in the Civil War Adventure Camp, the ultimate Civil War immersion experience. More than 70 area residents joined her on this new adventure, which will be seen on television by more than 30 million viewers worldwide.

Globe Trekker has been exploring the globe for 11 seasons and has brought over 100 shows from around the globe into our homes.

Pamplin Historical Park & The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier is a 422-acre Park located 30 minutes south of downtown Richmond and operated the Civil War Adventure Camp year round..
